

Shopping At Kolkata

Kolkata is the financial capital of East India and is a prime market destination of North- East India. The city has many big and vivacious market places spread all over the city and represents the lifestyle of Kolkata.

Following are the prime market places of the city:

1. New Market:

The New market is located in Lindsay street which is the oldest shopping place in the city. It was opened for the British residents before the independence of India and was designed in a Gothic style. The market is one of Calcutta's best shopping centres, selling Cotton saris, Silk from Murshidabad & khadi cloth poultry.

2. Dakshinapan Shopping Complex:

Unlike other big market places of Kolkata, Dakshinapan market is an open air shopping complex which is located in the southern corner of the city. Most of the shops in this market are state government outlets selling handloom and handicraft products. There are also a number of Indian ethnic wear and dress material outlets which offer their products at reasonable prices. Dakshinapan is a choice destination for a variety of sarees like Jaipur silk, Kota, Synthetic, Kora silk, Bandhni, etc and salwar suits.

3. Meera Aparels Pvt. Ltd.

8 Dr. Sarat Banerjee Road, Kolkata-29

Is a leading outlet engaged in providing superior quality Cotton Kantha Stich Sarees. Kantha is a form of embroidery work, which comprises of the simplest stitches in different arrangements, that form the intricate designs. Made from pure cotton with natural dye procured from West Bengal makes these saree attractive and beautiful.

4. Chowringhee Road:

A huge variety of pavement vendors line Chowringhee Road from Park Street to New Market, selling everything bizarre to tacky. However, if you look through all the junk, you'll find some wonderful terracotta wares, which are a Kolkata specialty. The decorative terracotta wall plaques are particularly attractive and come in some unique traditional designs.

5. Khadi Gramodyog Bhavan:

46, Rash Behari Avenue, Ballygunge, Gol Park, Dhakuria, Kolkata, WB

Khadi Gramodyog Bhavan, situated in CR Avenue, is the best place to buy quality products that have the typical Bengali touch. Here, you can shop for a variety of fabrics, such as Motka, Sunndy and Tassar. You can find a vast collection of Baluchari sarees, Bishnupuri, Sonamukhi, Mirzapuri, Bomkai, Kotki and Kanjeevaram silk sarees here.

6. Gariahat Market, Kolkata.

Gariahat Road connects Ballygunge Phari with Prince Anwar Shah Road and Raja SC Mullick Road near Jadavpur Police station on the southern part of Kolkata, India. The famous shop at Gariahat is dhakeshwari and adi dhakeshwari saree shop.

7. Mahatma Gandhi Road, College Street, Kolkata.

This is the one of the important hub for stocking various types of sarees in kolkata. Leading shops of this market are as listed below :-

- (i) Adi Mohini Mohan Kanjilal
- (ii) Das Saree
- (iii) Shree Bhagwati Industries
- (iv) Shilpi
- (v) New Dhakeswari Bastralaya
- (vi) Fulchand Surajmal
- (vii) Shuddha Khadi Bhandar
- (viii) Draupadi Selections
- (ix) Didwania Stores
- (x) Rathi Brothers
- (xi) Kali and Co

8. Saree shops at Bara Bazar, Near Kalakar Street, Kolkata

These bridal sarees are specifically designed to reveal the feminine grace of the blushing bride on that memorable occasion. Floral Print, Dew Drop work with moti and Cut dana work done in Silver on these sarees in Pastel colour chart Viscose Sarees will undoubtedly turn the attention of everyone towards the bride. Matching Blouse cut piece accompanies to enhance the beauty of the bride.

